

Food for Thought Interview Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Write down the five questions you think are most important from the sticky notes on the board:

Question 1:

Question 2:

Question 3:

Question 4:

Question 5:

2. Using your questions from above, interview at least three other people in the class and write their responses in the table on the next page. If a question does not apply to the person you are interviewing, leave the box blank.

Name:

Name:

Name:

Reply to Question 1:

Reply to Question 2:

Reply to Question 3:

Reply to Question 4:

Reply to Question 5:

4. How might your budget affect the food that you might buy for the party?

5. Based on the answers you received to your interview question, list one food item that you think could be bought for the party, and justify your choice:

6. Why is interviewing an important part of the design process? What are the challenges of designing a solution that meets several different parameters?

